

Core-Asset - What Makes Us Elite?

Independency - Core-Asset Consulting is an independently owned recruitment business dedicated to the Investment Banking and Financial Services markets throughout Scotland.

Our focus on Quality - Quality, both in our service and our candidates, is our primary focus. As a result, our business has matured to the extent where many firms consider us to be their number one recruitment partner.

Consultative Approach - Investment Banking and Financial Services are our principal recruitment sectors, we classify ourselves as specialists in these fields, offering a premium level service – we classify ourselves as a “boutique recruiter” who can offer tailored solutions to our clients.

Our Consultants - Each of our consultants has been handpicked for their passion and beliefs on respect, reliability and integrity, all of which constitute the company's values as we strive to meet the expectations of our candidates and clients.

Reputation - Core-Asset Consulting has developed an outstanding database of both current and potential applicants who are highly skilled and relevant to Scotland's Investment and Financial services industry. We have forged an excellent reputation by consistently delivering professional recruitment services to our clients.

Flexibility - Our approach is to consider the most relevant recruitment method for each position using may include the utilisation of advertising and marketing, combined with modern and innovative search solutions.
